About us

The Mexican Council on Foreign Relations (COMEXI) is a non profit independent organization, dedicated to the analysis and debate of the major global trends affecting Mexico. We seek to inform society with insightful up-to-date information, impact opinion leaders and influence public policy.

We organize discussion panels, roundtable meetings, high-level conversations and international forums as well as Working Groups on the most pressing topics of the global agenda. Through public discussions and publications, we seek to promote a non-partisan vision of the country's international agenda.

COMEXI's memberships consists of more than 500 associates, including recognized experts in various fields, global corporations based in Mexico, Mexican companies with an international reach, embassies, international organizations, academics, and research centers.

All of our members have access to COMEXI's Working Groups as well as to our forums, conferences and high-impact initiatives. In order to motivate public debates on the issues and priorities that interest Mexican society, COMEXI also seeks to engage, on a regular basis, with governmental institutions, corporations, legislators, and other stakeholders.

As allowed by the Mexican Ministry of Public Finance, COMEXI is a civil association providing tax-deductible receipts.

Corporate Membership (15,000 USD)

COMEXI seeks to satisfy the needs of all of our Corporate Members by offering innovative ideas and perspectives, as well as training on specific subjects and issues related to the national and international spheres. We also provide a unique fora in which corporate leaders can interact and share ideas with various experts and participants of the public and private sectors, both nationally and internationally.

The current political realities in Mexico and around the world has motivated our Corporate Members to seek trustworthy-à-la-carte services. COMEXI provides the much needed clarity and knowledge thanks to the talent of our experts. We work closely with each of our Corporate Members to design a program that satisfies their specific needs. Two examples of these activities are listed below:

PRIVATE QUARTERLY MEETINGS.

An expert from COMEXI meets with the executive team of the company to discuss or train on specific topics of the national and international agenda.

EXPERTS PANEL IN ANNUAL MEETINGS.

Cuatro expertos COMEXI conversan y analizan el entorno internacional y brindan una perspectiva enfocada hacia México y la industria específica.

Membership Benefits

IN ADDITION, ALL OF OUR CORPORATE MEMBERS ARE REGULARLY INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES SUCH AS:

COMEXI WORKING GROUPS.

The objective of our Working Groups is to contribute to the public debate on key issues of the national agenda. Participation of our Corporate Members is always welcome as it strengthens the skills, experience, talent, diversity, and proposals of the group.

PRIVATE MEETINGS WITH OPINION LEADERS AND KEY FOREIGN VISITORS.

COMEXI is a natural stop for global leaders visiting our country and other prestigious international experts. Our Corporate Members are invited to meet with them on a private basis.

Some of COMEXI's events are organized under Chatham House rules, that is, with no attribution. Associates can express their opinions freely with strict respect for other members' ideas and proposals.

SPONSORSHIP

COMEXI also offers Corporations the opportunity to participate, as a sponsor, on specific events and forums.
