ABOUT US

The Mexican Council on Foreign Relations (COMEXI) is a non profit independent organization, dedicated to the analysis and debate of the major global trends affecting Mexico. We seek to inform society with insightful up-to-date information, impact opinion leaders and influence public policy.

We organize discussion panels, roundtable meetings, high-level conversations and international forums as well as working groups on the most pressing topics of the global agenda. Through public discussions and publications, we seek to promote a non-partisan vision of the country’s international agenda.

COMEXI’s memberships consists of more than 500 associates, including recognized experts in various fields, global corporations based in Mexico, Mexican companies with an international reach, embassies, international organizations, academics, and research centers.

BENEFITS FOR CORPORATE MEMBERS

Thanks to the talent of our experts, we work closely with each of our Corporate Members to design a program that satisfies their specific needs. Our Members are invited to participate in:

WORKING GROUPS

The aim of these groups is to contribute to the public debate on key issues of the national agenda. Participation of our Corporate Members is always welcome as it strengthens the skills, experience, talent, diversity, and proposals of the group.

PRIVATE MEETINGS WITH OPINION LEADERS AND KEY FOREIGN FIGURES

COMEXI is a natural stop for global leaders visiting our country and other prestigious international experts. Our Corporate Members are invited to meet with them on a private basis.

COMEXI is regulated under Chatham House rules, that is, with no attribution. Associates can express their opinions freely with strict respect for other members ideas and proposals.
VISIBILITY OF YOUR COMPANY LOGO

Your company or organization's logo can be featured in the events and materials produced by COMEXI.

SPECIAL SPONSORSHIP

COMEXI is also sponsored by a large number of companies in specific forums and events.
COMEXI seeks to satisfy the needs of all our Corporate Members by offering innovative ideas and perspectives, as well as training on specific subjects and issues related to the national and international spheres. We also provide a unique fora in which corporate leaders can interact and share ideas with various experts and participants of the public and private sectors, both nationally and internationally.

The current political realities in Mexico and around the world has motivated our Corporate Members to seek trustworthy-à-la-carte services. COMEXI provides the much needed clarity and knowledge.
